Up to 5 competitors there is a round fight. If there are more than 5 competitors in a weight category than they will be divided into further groups depending on the number of participants and there will be a round fight in their group. From each group the first two qualify into the semi-final or final. The winners of semi-final's round will fight for the first and second place. The fighters who are the second in the semi-final will fight for the third place. There is only one third place.

Rules of KUMITE:

It is allowed in all categories:

- catching/grabbing is allowed for 3 seconds
- it is allowed to catch the gi on both side of the body
- it is also allowed to catch the gi on one side with two hands
- it is allowed to catch the gi with one hand and with the other the occiput
- all groundings are allowed with the acceptance of throwing

In adults' categories you may catch the back side of the head with one palm (flat of the hand) for the duration of one technique. It is forbidden to catch the head with both hands and with lower arm. By catching the head with one palm it is allowed to catch the gi with the other hand.

Under 18 years it is forbidden to attack the head frontal e.g. with mae geri jodan, hisa geri jodan. Kicks are allowed only sideways.

POINTS

We are going to use the new system in points and penalties according to the following:

Every regular hit is 2 points (YOUKO)

4 YUOKO = IPPON (end of the fight)

PENALTIES:

DAME = warning

Chui Ichi – 1 point to the opponent

Chui Ni – 2 points to the opponent

Chui San – 3 points to the opponents (end of fight)

IMPORTANT!

Only 1 DAME can be given. After it comes CHUI ICHI

The winner is who has the most points at the end of given fighting time. Extra time is only in case of point's equality or if there is no point. If there is no points during the extra time the referees make the decision who would become the winner. The earlier points and penalties are valid in extra time too. The extra time ends by achieving the first hit.

JOGAI can only be punished if one foot of the competitor is totally outside of the blue warning sector/lane.

If somebody is knocked down he/she has 8 seconds to continue the fight. If the competitor is not able to continue the fight the opponent gets Ippon and wins.
